DIVISION OF SCIENCE RESOURCES STUDIES

The Division of Science Resources Studies ( SRS ) fulfills the legislative mandate of the National Science Foundation Act to ...

provide a central clearinghouse for the collection, interpretation, and analysis of data on scientific and engineering resources and to provide a source of information for policy formulation by other agencies of the Federal Government...

To carry out this mandate, SRS designs, supports, and directs periodic surveys as well as a variety of other data collections and research projects. These surveys yield the materials for SRS staff to compile, analyze, and disseminate quantitative information about domestic and international resources devoted to science, engineering, and technology.

If you have any comments or suggestions about this or any other SRS product or report, we would like to hear from you. Please direct your comments to:

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This publication was prepared by Kelly H. Kang, Project Officer for the Survey of Doctorate Recipients, Science and Engineering Human Resources Statistics Program (HRS) of the National Science Foundation's Division of Science Resources Studies (SRS), under the overall direction of Mary J. Golladay, Program Director, HRS and Mary E. Frase, Acting Division Director, SRS. Mary Collins of Westat provided oversight in the production and a detail review of the tables. Anne Houghton, Julia Harriston, and Tanya Gore of SRS provided editorial assistance.

SRS is grateful to Patricia Green, Natalie Suter, Rachel Harter, and the project staff at the National Opinion Research Center (NORC) for having conducted the survey in 1997.
